Instructions for Authors

Authors are invited to submit original papers that have not been published and are not under review elsewhere. Submissions must not substantially duplicate work that any of the authors have published or submitted in parallel to any other venue with proceedings. All submissions are screened for plagiarism and must follow generally accepted publication and author-ethics standards.

Papers must be written in English and submitted in PDF format, prepared with the official conference template (two-column, US Letter). Papers are limited to 8 pages including references, with up to 2 additional pages at an extra charge. The conference has regular papers and short papers; upon acceptance, the Program Committee decides the presentation category.

AsiaJCIS 2027 adopts a double-blind peer review: submitted manuscripts must be anonymized, with no author names, affiliations, acknowledgements, or obvious self-references. Each submission is reviewed by at least three Program Committee members.

At least one author of each accepted paper MUST register and give an oral presentation at the conference. Papers not presented (“no-shows”) are removed from the proceedings and announced as no-show papers on the conference site.

Publication

All accepted papers are published in the AsiaJCIS 2027 conference proceedings, an open-access volume of the EPiC Series in Computing (EasyChair), with a DOI for each paper — the same route used for AsiaJCIS 2025 and 2026. Each contribution appears in a single proceedings.
